STOOPS CENTER FOR COMMUNITIES,
FAMILIES, & CHILDREN
COLLEGE OF SOCIAL WORK

Dear Friend,

At Florida State University's College of Social Work, we believe in the power of collective action to create lasting, meaningful change. The FSU Stoops Center for Communities, Families, and Children is at the forefront of our mission, tackling some of the most pressing social challenges of our time.

OUR FOCUS AREAS

- Addiction & Recovery: Advancing prevention and treatment strategies.
- Children & Youth Mental Health: Improving access to critical support services.
- Community Resilience: Helping disaster-affected communities rebuild.
- Integrated Health Care: Bridging behavioral and physical health for better outcomes.
- Support & Burnout Prevention: Addressing vicarious trauma and burnout for professionals.
- Veteran Empowerment: Connecting veterans with specialized resources and care.

Our center is committed to social innovation, combining research, education, and community engagement to create solutions that change lives. But we cannot do this alone. Your support is crucial to advancing our work and expanding our impact.

HOW YOUR SUPPORT MAKES AN IMPACT

Your partnership allows us to:

- Develop and implement programs that address urgent needs.
- Train social workers, clinicians, and professionals to be change agents.
- Expand research-informed, outcome-based practices.
- Collaborate with communities for sustainable change.
- Disseminate best practices to enhance community-driven change.

Join us in our mission to build a brighter, healthier future for families, communities, and children.

Together, we can drive social innovations and transform lives.
